FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT KNOXVILLE

IN RE:

IMAGEPOINT, INC.,

Case No. 09-31225

Chapter 11

Debtor.

IMAGEPOINT, INC.

Plaintiff,

vs.

Adv. No. _____

BFS RETAIL & COMMERCIAL OPERATIONS, LLC

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

Comes the plaintiff, ImagePoint, Inc., the debtor herein, by and through counsel, and for cause of action against the defendant alleges:

1. This adversary proceeding is brought pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7001 and arises in this bankruptcy case.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 541 and § 542, and 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and § 157. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(E). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a) and (b).
3. This is an action to recover a debt owed to the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 542 (b).
4. On March 9, 2009, an involuntary bankruptcy petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code was filed. This case was converted to Chapter 11 on April 13, 2009. Plaintiff is the debtor in possession.

5. Defendant's Registered Agent for Service of Process is National Registered Agents Inc. 2300 Hillsboro Road, Suite 365, Nashville, TN 37212.

6. Plaintiff provided products to defendant pursuant to the Sign & Maintenance Agreement dated February 24, 2006. Defendant has not paid plaintiff the amounts due for the products sold to defendant.

7. Plaintiff sold products to defendant totaling $1,128,007.45. Plaintiff asserts that after all credits are applied by plaintiff, defendant owes plaintiff $938,217.42.

8. Plaintiff has made demand on the defendant for payment of the amount which defendant owes plaintiff. Defendant has failed to pay the amount which is owed plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, AND FOR ALL OF WHICH, plaintiff asserts it is entitled to a judgment against the defendant in the amount of $938,217.42 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §542, plus pre-judgment interest and attorney's fees, if deemed recoverable by the Court.

Respectfully submitted this 16th day of June, 2009.

MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER TO SUBSTITUTE PARTY AND COUNSEL

COMES David H. Jones, Chapter 7 Trustee for the Debtor, ImagePoint, Inc., by and through counsel, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule of Procedure 7025, and moves the Court for entry of an Order substituting David H. Jones, Trustee, as the plaintiff in this adversary proceeding, and substituting Michael W. Ewell, Esq., Richard T. Scrugham, Jr., Esq., and the law firm of Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP, as counsel for the plaintiff.

In support thereof, the Trustee would state that since the filing of this adversary proceeding on June 23, 2009, the debtor-in-possession's Chapter 11 case was converted to a Chapter 7 by order of this Court on June 24, 2009. The Trustee should be substituted for the original plaintiff Imagepoint, Inc., and the Trustee's counsel should be substituted as the plaintiff's counsel.

WHEREFORE, AND FOR ALL OF WHICH, Trustee moves for entry of the proposed Order Allowing Substitution of Party and for Substitution of Counsel.

Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of July, 2009.

Chapter 11

Judge Parsons

Adv. Proc. No. 3:09-ap-3080

ANSWER, AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES AND COUNTERCLAIMS OF BRIDGESTONE
RETAIL OPERATIONS, LLC

Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC f/k/a BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BSRO” or “Defendant”), by and through undersigned counsel, states the following as its Answer, Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaims to the Complaint filed against it by ImagePoint, Inc. (“ImagePoint” or “Plaintiff”) and its Counterclaim(s) against ImagePoint:

1. Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 1 of Plaintiff’s Complaint.
2. Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 2 of Plaintiff’s Complaint and further avers that this Court has jurisdiction over BSRO’s Counterclaims against ImagePoint, which Counterclaims also are core proceedings pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).
3. Defendant admits that Plaintiff seeks to recover a debt allegedly owed to the estate of ImagePoint, but denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 3 of Plaintiff’s Complaint.

4. Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 4 of Plaintiff's Complaint, but states that the case was converted back to a Chapter 7 proceeding on June 24, 2009 and that a trustee has been appointed to administer the estate of ImagePoint.

5. Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 5 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

6. Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 6 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

7. Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 7 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

8. Defendant admits that ImagePoint has made various demands for payments but denies that Defendant owes any amount to ImagePoint for the reasons set forth in its Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaim.

GENERAL DENIAL

9. Defendant denies each and every allegation contained in the Complaint not specifically admitted above. Defendant denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to the relief it seeks by way of the Complaint and to any relief.

AFFIRMATIVE AND ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

Defendant, by and through undersigned counsel, as and for the Defendant's affirmative and additional defenses to the Complaint, states as follows:

1. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted.
2. Plaintiff's Complaint fails due to insufficient service of process.
3. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of setoff.
4. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of recoupment.
5. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver.
6. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel.
7. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate any damages.

8. Plaintiff claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of unjust enrichment.

9. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part due to ImagePoint's material breaches of the contracts between the parties.

10. Defendant reserves its right to supplement and amend these Affirmative Defenses as it deems appropriate.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays that Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice; that judgment be entered in favor of Defendant on Plaintiff's Complaint; that all costs be taxed against the Plaintiff; and that this Court grant such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

COUNTERCLAIMS

Defendant, by and through undersigned counsel, for its counterclaims against ImagePoint, states as follows:

1. Defendant incorporates the foregoing Answer and Affirmative Defenses.
2. Defendant/Counterclaim-plaintiff BSRO is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business at 333 East Lake Street, Bloomingdale, Illinois 60108.
3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff/Counterclaim-defendant ImagePoint is a Tennessee corporation with its principal place of business at 445 S. Gay Street, Knoxville, Tennessee 37950 and an estate in bankruptcy.

4. Jurisdiction for these Counterclaims is proper pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 541 and 542, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and § 157. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a) and (b).

5. ImagePoint and BSRO entered into various written agreements over the years, including but not limited to that certain Sign Maintenance Agreement dated February 24, 2006 (as may have been amended from time to time, the “Sign Agreement”), which are in the possession of both parties.

6. Among other things, the Sign Agreement required ImagePoint to repair and replace “all signage as required by [BSRO], which shall include surveys, drawings, project management, permits, permit acquisition, manufacturing, shipping, and installation of new signage and replacement parts of existing signage.” See Sign Agreement, at ¶1.

7. Paragraph 15.3 of the Sign Agreement provides that ImagePoint “shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless” BSRO from and against all claims, damages, losses and expenses arising out of or resulting from the acts or omissions of ImagePoint, its subcontractors, officers, directors, employees or agents in connection with the Sign Agreement.

8. ImagePoint warranted, among other things, that “all signs manufactured by ImagePoint are guaranteed for a period of one (1) year from the date of installation to be free of defects in workmanship and materials.” See Sign Agreement, at ¶14. ImagePoint also warranted that “services will be performed in a timely and professional manner.” Id.

9. ImagePoint was required to promptly pay all of its subcontractors. In the event that ImagePoint failed to pay its subcontractors, BSRO was and is authorized to pay the defaulted amounts to subcontractors directly and to offset any amounts so paid against any amounts that BSRO otherwise would have been obligated to pay to ImagePoint.

10. ImagePoint has waived any and all applicable mechanics lien and similar lien rights.

11. ImagePoint has failed to comply with its contractual obligations to BSRO, including pursuant to the Sign Agreement, and on January 9, 2009, ImagePoint ceased business operations.

12. The Sign Agreement and applicable law require ImagePoint to protect, and not sell, BSRO's confidential proprietary information, including but not limited to BSRO's intellectual property. See, e.g., Sign Agreement, at ¶17.

13. Upon information and belief, ImagePoint has sold and is continuing to attempt to sell products and other things embodying BSRO's protected intellectual property.

14. As a result of ImagePoint's actions, BSRO was required to locate and retain a replacement sign company that could supply BSRO with all of the sign-related services that ImagePoint was otherwise contractually obligated to supply to BSRO.

COUNT I – Breach of Contract

15. BSRO incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 14 above.

16. ImagePoint has breached its contractual obligations to BSRO in numerous respects, including by its defective designs, its failure to honor its warranty obligations, its failure to destroy (and not sell) any extra BSRO sign faces it manufactured, its failure to promptly pay claims of subcontractors, and ceasing business operations and requiring BSRO to locate and procure the services of a replacement sign company.

17. ImagePoint's multiple breaches of its contractual obligations to BSRO have proximately caused, and will continue to cause, BSRO substantial damages, including but not necessarily limited to the following:

- a. BSRO has already paid $125,514.61 to sign installers and other ImagePoint subcontractors in order to resolve their claims regarding signs they installed at various retail locations; BSRO estimates that it will be required to pay substantial additional amounts to other sign installers and to maintenance subcontractors to resolve additional claims.
- b. ImagePoint has breached and will continue to breach its warranty obligations to BSRO.
- c. BSRO has incurred expenses for relocation, storage, and transfer of molds and tools, relocation of BSRO working files, and contractor expenses as a direct result of ImagePoint closing its doors.
- d. Without prior notice, BSRO was required to obtain replacement sign services to fulfill the remaining obligations of ImagePoint under the terms of its agreements with BSRO.
- e. BSRO has also incurred, and will continue to incur, substantial professional fees of consultants and attorneys as a result of ImagePoint's multiple breaches and then abrupt work stoppage.

WHEREFORE, BSRO respectfully requests that it be granted judgment against ImagePoint for all of the damages it has incurred, and will in the future incur, as a result of ImagePoint's breaches, together with pre- and post-judgment interest, attorney fees, costs, expenses, and such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT II – Breach of Warranty

18. BSRO incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 17 above.

19. ImagePoint sold signs and related products to BSRO.

20. ImagePoint warranted that the signs and related products would be free of defects in material and workmanship, and if there were defects that ImagePoint would repair and replace warranted items for a period of one (1) year after installation.

21. BSRO has paid ImagePoint significant sums for signs and related products based in part on the strength of ImagePoint's express and implied warranties.

22. ImagePoint has failed to comply with its express and implied warranty obligations to BSRO.

23. As a result of ImagePoint's breach of its express and implied warranty obligations, BSRO has suffered significant damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, BSRO respectfully requests that it be granted judgment against ImagePoint for all of the damages it has incurred, and will in the future incur, as a result of ImagePoint's warranty breaches, together with pre- and post-judgment interest, attorney fees, costs, expenses, and such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT III – Indemnity

24. BSRO incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 23 above.

25. ImagePoint promised to indemnify BSRO for all losses that BSRO's incurred in any way arising from or related to the ImagePoint sign supply and maintenance agreements.

26. ImagePoint has experienced losses covered by ImagePoint's indemnity as a result of, among other things, ImagePoint's failure to fulfill signage orders, failure to pay installation and other subcontractors, failure to keep BSRO's proprietary information confidential as required by contract and applicable law, failure to honor warranty obligations, and its sale or attempted sale of BSRO's proprietary and confidential information and intellectual property.

WHEREFORE, BSRO respectfully requests that it be granted judgment against ImagePoint for all of the covered losses it has incurred, and will in the future incur, as a result of ImagePoint's actions or omissions, together with pre- and post-judgment interest, attorney fees, costs, expenses, and such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT IV – Unjust Enrichment and Conversion

27. BSRO incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 26 above.

28. Upon information and belief, ImagePoint has sold most, if not all, of the signs and related proprietary information and things which had either been previously paid for by BSRO or for which ImagePoint had been given only a limited license to use such property or information.

29. To the extent that ImagePoint has alienated or sold property in which BSRO held a superior ownership interest, ImagePoint has converted BSRO's property and has been unjustly enriched by any proceeds received in exchange therefor.

30. ImagePoint owes a duty to make full restitution to BSRO in an amount to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, BSRO respectfully requests that it be granted judgment against ImagePoint for restitution in the amount of any and all proceeds obtained for or on behalf of ImagePoint as a result of ImagePoint's conversion of property in which it held no ownership interest, together with pre- and post-judgment interest, attorney fees, costs, expenses, and such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT V – Setoff and Stay Relief

31. BSRO incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 30 above.

32. To the extent this Court determines there is any debt owing by BSRO to ImagePoint, BSRO requests that this Court order and permit a setoff or recoupment in favor of BSRO in reduction of any such debt.

33. BSRO requests that this Court order relief from the automatic stay to the extent necessary to authorize a setoff or recoupment in favor of BSRO.

34. ImagePoint owes a duty to make full restitution to BSRO in an amount to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, BSRO respectfully requests that it be granted relief from the automatic stay to the extent necessary to authorize a setoff or recoupment in favor of BSRO.

ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as incorporated by Rule 7016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the court directs the following:

1. A telephonic scheduling conference will be held in this adversary proceeding on September 10, 2009, at 11:00 a.m., for the purpose of preparing a scheduling order. The telephone number for the conference is 1-904-596-2362 and the participant pin code is 65733076#. During the conference, the court will set dates for completing discovery, filing dispositive motions, submitting a joint pretrial statement, filing pretrial briefs and the trial of this matter.

2. In accordance with Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as incorporated by Rule 7026 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, as soon as practicable and in any event at least seven days before the scheduling conference, counsel for the parties shall meet to discuss the nature and basis of the parties' claims and defenses and the possibilities for a prompt settlement or resolution of the case, to make or arrange for the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1), and to develop a proposed discovery plan. The plan shall indicate the parties' views and proposals concerning the matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(1)-(4).

3. At least two days prior to the scheduling conference, counsel for the parties shall file with the court a written report outlining the plan that is required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f). Although both counsel are jointly responsible for arranging and being present at the Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) meeting, for attempting in good faith to agree to the proposed discovery plan, and for submitting to the court a written report outlining the plan, plaintiff's counsel shall have the primary responsibility for initially contacting defendant's counsel upon receipt of this order to schedule the meeting. By agreement, the parties may conduct the Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) meeting by telephone.

PARTIES' DISCOVERY PLAN

The parties, pursuant to the Court's Order, submit their discovery plan as follows:

1. The parties will make the initial exchange of disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a), on or before November 16, 2009.
2. Discovery Plan: The represented parties jointly propose to the Court the following discovery plan:
 - a. Discovery will be needed on all issues joined.
 - b. No limit, other than limits imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and/or the Local Rules of the Court, need be imposed on the number of interrogatories, the number of requests for production, the number of requests for admission, or the number or length of depositions.

- c. The parties agree to confer and cooperate in connection with (i) the possibility of making witnesses available by agreement and without the need for subpoena, (ii) the scheduling of witnesses for depositions on particular dates, including those specified above, and (iii) generally reducing the expense and inconvenience of deposition.
 - d. The parties propose that expert witness disclosure with production of documents required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B) be made on or before January 15, 2010. The parties shall then identify their rebuttal expert witnesses and produce the documents required under Rule 26(a)(2)(B) on or before February 20, 2010.
 - e. All discovery, including the taking of depositions “for evidence”, shall be completed by March 12, 2010.
 - f. The parties propose that dispositive motions be filed on or before March 19, 2010, with responses due in accordance with local rules.
3. Settlement/Mediation: The possibility of settlement is unknown at this time. The parties agree to confer regarding settlement and regarding the possibility of mediation.
4. Other Items: The parties reserve the right to file, in the future, motions to amend this Discovery Plan and Report to the Court, to compel discovery, for protective orders, or for such other relief as may be required.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of October, 2009.

Adv. Pro. No. 09-3080

ORDER

This adversary proceeding came before the court for a telephonic scheduling conference on October 30, 2009. After consulting with counsel for the parties, the court directs the following:

1. The parties shall make their Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) disclosures by November 16, 2009.

2. The parties shall exchange initial reports from all expert witnesses by January 15, 2010. Rebuttal reports from all expert witnesses shall be exchanged by February 20, 2010. All discovery shall be completed by March 12, 2010.

3. Any dispositive motion shall be filed by March 19, 2010. A response shall be filed within twenty days after the filing of any dispositive motion. The failure to respond will be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.

4. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:

- a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
- b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the plaintiff's causes of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendant's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- d. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- e. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

5. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

6. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefor, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

7. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraphs (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the court.

8. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index of all prefiled exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

9. The trial of this adversary proceeding will commence on June 10, 2010, at 9:00 a.m., in the bankruptcy courtroom, Bankruptcy Courtroom 1B, Howard H. Baker, Jr. United States Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN AGREED ORDER
CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING PRETRIAL DEADLINES

COME David H. Jones, Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) on the one hand, and Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC f/k/a BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BSRO”) on the other hand, by and through their undersigned counsel, and move the Court for entry of an Order, in the form attached hereto, continuing trial of this action from June 10, 2010 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT) to February 24 & 25, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT), and resetting the pretrial deadlines in connection therewith.

For cause the parties would show that the date and time of the rescheduled trial date was previously informally cleared with the Court’s law clerk. Since that time, the parties have been discussing prospective deadlines for the completion of fact and expert discovery. The attached order reflects those deadlines on which the parties have agreed to govern fact and expert discovery and other pretrial deadlines based upon a February 24 & 25, 2011 trial date.

UPON the Joint Motion For Entry Of An Agreed Order Continuing Trial Date And Resetting Pretrial Deadlines, and for good cause shown, the trial of this matter is continued from June 10, 2010 to February 24 and 25, 2011, beginning on February 24, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m., Bankruptcy Courtroom 1B, Howard H. Baker, Jr., United States Courthouse, 800

Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee and the trial dates and deadlines set forth in the Court's order of October 30, 2009 are hereby amended as follows:

1. Reports from experts pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) shall be served by the party bearing the burden of proof with respect to the issue to which the expert testimony relates on or before October 4, 2010.

2. Rebuttal expert reports shall be served on or before November 15, 2010.

3. All discovery shall be completed November 30, 2010.

4. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by December 4, 2010.

5. A response shall be served and filed within twenty days after filing of any dispositive motion and any reply brief shall be served and filed within ten days after filing of the response. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.

6. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:

- a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
- b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.

- e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

7. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

8. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

9. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

10. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index or all prefiled exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

SO ORDERED.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN AGREED ORDER
CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING PRETRIAL DEADLINES

COME David H. Jones, Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) on the one hand, and Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC f/k/a BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BSRO”) on the other hand, by and through their undersigned counsel, and move the Court for entry of an Order, in the form attached hereto, continuing trial of this action from February 24 & 25, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT) to December 7 & 8, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT), and resetting the pretrial deadlines in connection therewith.

For cause the parties would show that the date and time of the rescheduled trial date was previously informally cleared with the Court’s law clerk. Since that time, the parties have been discussing prospective deadlines for the completion of fact and expert discovery. The attached order reflects those deadlines on which the parties have agreed to govern fact and expert discovery and other pretrial deadlines based upon a December 7 & 8, 2011 trial date.

Respectfully submitted this 22nd day of February, 2011.

Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee and the trial dates and deadlines set forth in the Court's order entered June 17, 2010 are hereby amended as follows:

1. The parties shall make their Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) disclosures by August 2, 2010.

2. Reports from experts pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) shall be served by the party bearing the burden of proof with respect to the issue to which the expert testimony relates on or before July 12, 2011.

3. Rebuttal expert reports shall be served on or before August 19, 2011.

4. All discovery shall be completed September 12, 2011.

5. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by September 23, 2011.

6. A response shall be served and filed within twenty days after filing of any dispositive motion and any reply brief shall be served and filed within ten days after filing of the response. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.

7. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:

- a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
- b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.

- d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

8. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

9. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

10. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

11. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index or all prefiled exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN AGREED ORDER

COME the parties, David H. Jones (“Trustee”) and BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BFS”), by and through counsel, and move the Court for entry of an Order extending the deadlines for responses to the discovery requests listed below up to and including November 16, 2011:

BFS’ first and second set of Requests for Admission to Trustee

BFS’ first set of Requests for Production to Trustee

BFS’ first set of interrogatories to Trustee

Trustee’s first set of Requests for Admission to BFS

Trustee’s first set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production to BFS

For cause the parties would show that additional time is needed for each Party to respond to the opposition's discovery requests, including but not limited to a number of Requests for Admission.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of October, 2011.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN AGREED ORDER
CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING PRETRIAL DEADLINES

COME David H. Jones, Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) on the one hand, and Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC f/k/a BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BSRO”) on the other hand, by and through their undersigned counsel, and move the Court for entry of an Order, in the form attached hereto, continuing trial of this action from December 7-8, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT) to May 16 & 17, 2012 beginning at 9:00 a.m. (EDT), and resetting certain of the pretrial deadlines in connection therewith.

For cause the parties would show that the date and time of the rescheduled trial date was previously informally cleared with the Court’s law clerk. Since that time, the parties have been discussing potential settlement and, in the event settlement cannot be reached, prospective deadlines for the completion of dispositive motions and trial. The attached order reflects those deadlines on which the parties have agreed to govern dispositive motions and other pretrial deadlines based upon a May 16 & 17, 2012 trial date.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of December, 2011.

AGREED ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING DEADLINES

UPON the Joint Motion For Entry Of An Agreed Order Continuing Trial Date And Resetting Pretrial Deadlines, and for good cause shown, the trial of this matter is continued from December 7 & 8, 2011, to May 16 & 17, 2012, beginning on May 16, 2012 beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Bankruptcy Courtroom 1B, Howard H. Baker, Jr., United States Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee and the trial-related deadlines set forth in the Court's order entered February 23, 2011 (D.I. 28) are hereby amended as follows (other deadlines remain as stated in the February 23, 2011 order as amended by the Agreed Order at D.I. 39):

2. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by January 13, 2012.

6. A response and any cross-motion shall be served and filed by February 3, 2012, and any reply brief or other documents shall be served and filed by February 24, 2012. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.

7. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:

- a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
- b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.

- f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

8. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

9. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

10. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

11. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index of all prefiled exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

6. A response and any cross-motion shall be served and filed by February 3, 2012, and any reply brief or other documents shall be served and filed by February 24, 2012. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.

7. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:

- a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
- b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
- d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
- e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.

- f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

8. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

9. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

10. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

11. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index of all prefiled exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

AGREED ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING DEADLINES

UPON the Joint Motion For Entry Of An Agreed Order Continuing Trial Date And Resetting Pretrial Deadlines, and for good cause shown, the trial of this matter is continued from December 7 & 8, 2011, to May 16 & 17, 2012, beginning on May 16, 2012 beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Bankruptcy Courtroom 1B, Howard H. Baker, Jr., United States Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee and the trial-related deadlines set forth in the Court's order

entered February 23, 2011 (D.I. 28) are hereby amended as follows (other deadlines remain as stated in the February 23, 2011 order as amended by the Agreed Order at D.I. 39):

2. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by January 13, 2012.
6. A response and any cross-motion shall be served and filed by February 3, 2012, and any reply brief or other documents shall be served and filed by February 24, 2012. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.
7. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:
 - a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
 - b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
 - c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
 - d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
 - e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.

f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.

g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

8. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

9. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

10. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

11. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilming all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to

authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. MOTION BY JAMES R. MARTIN FOR ENTRY OF
AGREED ORDER TO SUBSTITUTE PARTY AND COUNSEL

COMES James R. Martin, a secured creditor of the Debtor, ImagePoint, Inc., and moves the Court for entry of an Order substituting "ImagePoint, Inc. by James R. Martin, Secured Creditor," as the plaintiff/counter-defendant in this adversary proceeding, and substituting John A. Lucas and the law firm of Merchant & Gould, P.C., as counsel for the plaintiff/counter-defendant, ImagePoint, Inc. by James R. Martin, Secured Creditor.

In support thereof, James R. Martin represents that since the filing of this adversary proceeding on June 16, 2009, the debtor-in-possession's Chapter 11 case was converted to Chapter 7 by Order of this Court on June 24, 2009. David H. Jones, Trustee, was substituted for the original plaintiff/counter-defendant, Imagepoint, Inc., and the Trustee's counsel was substituted as the plaintiff/counter-defendant's counsel. On February 14, 2012, the Court entered an Order approving a Settlement Agreement between the Trustee and James R. Martin providing in part for stay relief to permit James R. Martin to pursue collection of accounts receivable securing his claim. The Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of October 3, 2003, between ImagePoint, Inc. and Wachovia, assigned to James R. Martin, permits lawsuits to collect receivables to be brought in the name of ImagePoint, Inc.

David H. Jones, Trustee, through his counsel, and Defendant, through its counsel, have agreed to the entry of an Order substituting ImagePoint, Inc. by James R. Martin, Secured Creditor, and attorney John A. Lucas and the law firm of Merchant & Gould, P.C.

WHEREFORE, James R. Martin moves for entry of the proposed Agreed Order To Substitute Party And Counsel.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN AGREED ORDER
CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING PRETRIAL DEADLINES

COME ImagePoint, Inc., by its secured creditor James R. Martin (the “Plaintiff”) on the one hand, and Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC f/k/a BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC (“BSRO”) on the other hand, by and through their undersigned counsel, and move the Court for entry of an Order, in the form attached hereto, continuing the trial of this action from May 16 & 17, 2012 beginning at 9:00 a.m. Eastern to November 28-30, 2012 beginning at 9:00 a.m. Eastern, and resetting certain of the pretrial deadlines in connection therewith.

For cause the parties would show that the date and time of the rescheduled trial date were previously informally cleared with the Court’s law clerk. Since that time, the parties have been discussing potential settlement and prospective deadlines for the completion of dispositive motions and trial, in the event settlement cannot be reached. The attached order reflects those deadlines on which the parties have agreed to govern dispositive motions and other pretrial deadlines based upon a November 28-30, 2012 trial date.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of May, 2012.

AGREED ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL DATE AND RESETTING DEADLINES

UPON the Joint Motion For Entry Of An Agreed Order Continuing Trial Date And Resetting Pretrial Deadlines, and for good cause shown, the trial of this matter is continued from May 16 & 17, 2012 to November 28-30, 2012, beginning on November 28, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. in the Bankruptcy Courtroom 1B, Howard H. Baker, Jr., United States Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, Tennessee and the trial-related deadlines set forth in the Court's order entered

February 23, 2011 (D.I. 28) as amended by the Agreed Order at D.I. 39 are hereby further amended as follows:

1. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by July 23, 2012.
2. A response and any cross-motion shall be served and filed by August 13, 2012, and any reply brief or other documents shall be served and filed by September 3, 2012. The failure to respond shall be deemed an admission that the motion should be granted.
3. In preparation for the trial, counsel for the parties shall file with the Court no later than ten days preceding the trial a joint pretrial statement setting forth:
 - a. A statement of all admitted or uncontested facts.
 - b. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Plaintiff's cause of actions, together with a reference to the legal theory of statute upon which such causes of action are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
 - c. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Defendant, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.
 - d. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Defendants' Causes of Action" a brief statement of each of the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to the legal theory or statute upon which such counterclaims are based and a summary of those facts in support of the causes of action.
 - e. In separate numbered paragraphs under the heading "Plaintiff's Defenses" a brief statement of each defense relied upon by the Plaintiff to the Defendants' counterclaims, together with a reference to any legal theory or statute upon which such defense may be based and a summary of facts in support of the defense.

- f. A statement of contested factual and legal issues with reference to appropriate statutes.
- g. In preparing the joint pretrial statement the parties, having had the benefit of discovery, are directed to eliminate any causes of action or defenses that will not be pursued at trial.

4. Trial briefs shall be filed by counsel for the parties at least seven days prior to the trial and shall include the factual and legal basis for each cause of action or each defense stated by the parties in their joint pretrial statement.

5. The pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be made at least fourteen days before trial. Within seven days thereafter, a party may serve and file a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subparagraph (B) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subparagraph (C) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

6. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(4), all disclosures under paragraph (1) through (3) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) shall be made in writing, signed, and served on all parties. The disclosures under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) need not be filed with the Court. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) shall be promptly filed with the Court.

7. If counsel for the parties contemplate introducing more than ten exhibits at the trial, they shall arrange a meeting with the courtroom deputy at least three days prior to trial for the purpose of premarking and prefilng all exhibits to which there is no dispute as to authenticity. These exhibits will be deemed admitted into evidence subject only to objections grounded on relevancy. Each party shall retain a set of exhibits and shall have a set available for the witnesses. An index of all pre-filed exhibits shall be filed by the parties at least two days prior to trial.

Adv. Proc. No. 3:09-ap-3080

AMENDED COMPLAINT

Comes the Plaintiff, ImagePoint, Inc., by James R. Martin, Secured Creditor

("ImagePoint"), by and through counsel, and for cause of action against the Defendant alleges:

1. ImagePoint, Inc., is a Tennessee corporation that is the debtor in this bankruptcy case.
2. BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC is, upon information and belief, a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in Illinois.
3. This adversary proceeding is brought pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7001 and arises in this bankruptcy case.
4. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 541 and § 542, and 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and § 157. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(E). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a) and (b).

5. On March 9, 2009, ImagePoint filed an involuntary bankruptcy petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This case was converted to Chapter 11 on April 13, 2009. The Plaintiff, James Martin, has been substituted as the Plaintiff in this adversary proceeding pursuant to the order entered by this Court on March 29, 2012. Mr. Martin is a secured creditor of the Debtor, ImagePoint, and brings this action to recover the amounts due from Defendant.

COUNT I
(Breach of Contract)

6. ImagePoint reaffirms and realleges the allegations of the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

7. On or about February 24, 2006, ImagePoint and BFS entered into a Sign & Maintenance Agreement which was amended on or about July 15, 2008 (collectively, the "Agreement"). The Agreement constituted a contract between ImagePoint and BFS.

8. Pursuant to the Agreement, ImagePoint sold products and services to BFS.

9. ImagePoint invoiced BFS for the products and services it provided pursuant to the Agreement, in various invoices, totaling $1,128,007.45 (the "Invoices"). The Invoices were sent to BFS between September 2008 and February 2009.

10. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, payment for the products and services provided by ImagePoint to BFS was due thirty days from BFS' receipt of the invoice for such goods and services.

11. BFS did not dispute the Invoices within the time permitted by the Agreement, but has not paid them.

12. BFS has breached the Agreement by not paying the amounts due for the products and services sold by ImagePoint to BFS pursuant to the Agreement and the Invoices. As a direct and proximate result of BFS' breach of the Agreement, ImagePoint has been damaged in the amount of $1,128,007.45.

COUNT II
(Quantum Meruit)

13. ImagePoint reaffirms and realleges the allegations of the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

14. By providing the produces and services to BFS as described herein, ImagePoint conferred a benefit on BFS.

15. BFS has obtained and retained the benefit of the products and services provided by ImagePoint, but has not paid ImagePoint for them.

16. It would be unjust for BFS to retain the benefit of the products and services provided by ImagePoint without compensating ImagePoint for their reasonable value.

17. The reasonable value for the products and services supplied by ImagePoint to BFS is at least $1,128,007.45.

18. ImagePoint is entitled to recover from BFS in quantum meruit at least the sum of $1,128,007.45, or such other amount as the evidence may show is due.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court take jurisdiction of this proceeding and grant it the follow relief:

(1) Judgment against BFS in the amount of $1,128,007.45, plus pre-judgment interest and the costs of this proceeding, in accordance with Count I hereof;

(2) Judgment against BFS in the amount of $1,128,007.45, or such other amount as the evidence may show is due, plus pre-judgment interest and the costs of this proceeding, in accordance with Count II hereof; and

(3) Such other and further relief as may be necessary and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 26th day of June, 2012.

Case No. 3:09-bk-31225

Judge Parsons

Adv. Proc. No. 3:09-ap-3080

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO WITHDRAW REFERENCE

Plaintiff, James R. Martin, by counsel, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) moves the Court for an Order withdrawing the reference of this matter to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee, for further adjudication by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee.

In support of this motion, Plaintiff represents as follows:

1. This action was originally filed by the Debtor-in-Possession, Imagepoint, Inc., (“Imagepoint”).
2. This case was converted from a case under Chapter 11 to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Court on June 29, 2009. David H. Jones was appointed as the Debtor’s Trustee in bankruptcy. Mr. Jones, as Trustee, was substituted as a Plaintiff in this adversary proceeding on July 22, 2009.
3. Plaintiff James R. Martin is a secured creditor of Imagepoint. He has a first-priority lien on its accounts receivable, including the accounts receivable that are the subject of this adversary proceeding. As a secured creditor he is entitled to collect those accounts receivables and has standing to maintain this action.

4. An issue has been raised, however, as to whether the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction over this action, which originally was brought by the Debtor-in-Possession pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 542. The Bankruptcy Court has ruled in another proceeding that Mr. Martin does not have standing to bring an adversary proceeding under § 542. See Docket Entry 58, in the United States Bankruptcy Court Adv. Proceeding Case No. 3:09-ap-03071, granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction. The Plaintiff wishes to have this adversary proceeding adjudicated by a Court whose jurisdiction over this action is undisputed.

5. In addition, the resolution of this adversary proceeding requires consideration of the laws of numerous states because of set-offs claimed by the Defendants. The determination of the claimed set-offs involve the construction of the mechanics lien laws of multiple states.

6. In addition to jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 (even if Mr. Martin lacks standing under 11 U.S.C. § 542) this Court has diversity jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding because the parties are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of $75,000, exclusive of costs and interest.

7. James R. Martin is a citizen of the state of Tennessee.

8. Imagepoint is a Tennessee corporation that is the debtor in this bankruptcy case. Imagepoint's principal place of business has been and is in Tennessee.

9. BFS Retail & Commercial Operations, LLC is, upon information and belief, a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in Illinois.

10. Plaintiff's counsel has consulted with counsel for the Defendant, and is authorized to state that Defendant does not oppose this motion.

Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the District Court withdraw the reference of this adversary from the Bankruptcy Court and assume jurisdiction over this proceeding.
